

Mrs. William A. Graham, née Susannah Sarah Washington, was reportedly beautiful and accomplished. Her personal letters reflect her devotion to her family and her sympathetic understanding of their various endeavors. From Laura MacMillan (comp.) The North Carolina Portrait Index, 1700-1860 (Chapel Hill: University of North Carolina Press, 1963).

to join the main Army. They may have been in the last fight between Alexandria & Fairfax Court house, but Capt Webb thinks that they hardly had time to get there. I am very anxious to hear from him again. Willie has come back to Hamilton, but does not know how long he will remain. The Yankees caught H. Bolden, one of his best soldiers. Your Father had a letter from John
